Welcome To Today's Game

Good Afternoon & Welcome

to the Sustain Stadium here at the Gerard Buxton Sports Ground for this South West Regional League fixture for what is our eighth women's home league fixture of the season.

A warm welcome to all our visitors from Bristol Rovers who have made the short trip up the M4 to join us this afternoon and we trust you will enjoy your first visit with us and wish you a safe journey home.

Our first ever meeting back in September was also the first league game of the season, and the first half turned out to be a goal fest with nine goals being scored, with our hosts ahead 5-4 going in at the break. We were unable to turn the game around in the second half and it was the home side scoring once more to seal the match and the three points with the game finishing 6-4.

Rovers will be looking to take all three points to keep them in the promotion mix having drooped back down to third in the table. Whereas, we will be looking for any points to help us to climb off the bottom of the table.

Last Sunday's game was billed as a must win game around the club as we hosted Poole Town who were only one point above us in the league. Our opponents also recognised this and came to win the game to try and increase the gap between us. The first half was very even with both defences keeping chances to a minimum which has shown in the league this season as all games are being closely contested with teams no longer winning by double figures. We did manage to take the lead in the game but were unable to score a second to give us breathing space in what was a very tight game, and it was no surprise that late into the second half we were pegged back and then found ourselves trailing 2-1 with only seven minutes to go.

Credit must be given to this group as they never gave up and were rewarded for their efforts with a late penalty to finish 2-2 and take a share of the points.

We still have enough league games to play in order to try to get out of the position we currently find ourselves in. However, next week's cup final against Warminster Town is a nice distraction to have when in a relegation battle.

Let's hope for a good performance and any points would be a bonus. Look forward to seeing you all in the bar after the match.

ADAM WOOD

Good afternoon & Welcome

to our visitors Bristol Rovers.

Firstly, a thank you to everyone who has wished me well since joining a few weeks back. The club and fans have been very welcoming and I owe a special thanks to Bryan, Simon, Sadie and Sam for allowing me to be a part of RWBTFC.

The season has not gone to plan and of course we are still searching for that first win in the league but based on the games I have watched and been a part of it's not been for the lack of trying. There is a great group of players here and the ambitions of the club/team are one of the major factors that made my decision to join so easy so we won't be throwing in the towel that's for sure!

Last week (2-2 vs Poole) was a tough one, they; having dropped down from the National League, would be expected to be in a much better league position and to be honest I am very surprised they are where they are. The team battled hard last week but that important product in the final third was missing and I think Poole edged us on fitness and composure in transition. We have started to address that this week in training so I'm hoping we start to see the early results of that today as we welcome a team in form. A huge positive we should take out of the game (and the season) is the youth presence within this tier five side, if I've done my maths correctly seven players out of the fourteen that played last week would still qualify for U18s football this season with at least five of those in the 17s bracket who have gone toe to toe with a former Tier 4 side.

It's never easy to join a team mid season and I really hope any experience I bring can compliment what is already here and assist with our main season goals (now) in a County Cup triumph and also securing our place in the league for next season where we can look to build and push on to where I genuinely believe Bassett should and can be.

If you know me already, you know I am a huge advocate of attacking football, let's hope for that today: enjoy the game.

Up the Bass!

LAURA JEFFERIES

Today we welcome Bristol Rovers, who we are expecting a tough fixture against following a 6-4 defeat on the opening day of the season. Bristol Rovers are currently sitting third in the league showing what a successful season they've had so far.

Last weekend we added another point to our league campaign. Disappointingly we did not take all three points, leading the game 1-0 for a large period Poole came out the stronger of the two teams in the second half turning the game on its head. Fortunately, we saw our first bit of luck this season winning a last minute penalty and somehow managed to salvage a point with the game finishing 2-2. Week in week, our performances are improving and we are taking points from training into the game, hopefully if we carry this on we have a chance at survival this season.

Next weekend, is County Cup final day, where we face league rivals Warminster. This will be a big day for the club this season and we will be hoping to get something positive out of it. It would be great to get as much support along to that game as possible as we try to bring some silverware home this season.

Once again thank you for your ongoing support and we hope you enjoy the game.

Laura

Rovers edge ten goal thriller

Bristol Rovers 6

Royal Wootton Bassett Town 4

Royal Wootton Bassett Town suffered defeat in their opening South West Regional Women's Football League Premier Division fixture as Bristol Rovers came out on top in a ten-goal thriller.

Huge entertainment for a neutral fans in attendance, nine goals were scored in a crazy opening half of frenzied, attacking football before Rovers added a goal shortly after the restart to secure what proved to be a decisive two-goal advantage.

Despite defeat, there were certainly plenty of positives for Bassett to take from a hugely entertaining game - not least the strong display going forward. Defensively there is certainly some work to be done though - but the same can be said for Rovers after such a high scoring season opener.

Bassett found themselves in a commanding position early on as they deservedly took a 2-0 lead. Hannah Gulliver netted the first, getting to the ball just ahead of teammate Maddy Elliott and bundling in after Amber Egerton had struck the crossbar. Libby Davies then scored Bassett's second, as she turned her marker before producing an emphatic finish.

Rovers then responded with three goals in quick succession. Poppy Warren set up Georgia Vandries to halve the hosts' deficit before Zoe Fielden-Stewart grabbed a soft goal to pull her side level. Fielden-Stewart then beat the offside trap to race onto a through ball and make it 3-2.

Bassett regrouped themselves though and levelled as Egerton fed Davies who notched her second of the match. But Rovers immediately restored their lead through Laura Curnock who headed in.

There was still time for two further goals before half time. Bassett were level again when Laura Jefferies' free kick fell to Egerton, whose shot was blocked but Davies swept in the rebound for her hat trick.

Parity didn't last long though as Vandries volleyed in to make it 5-4.

Vandries added her third shortly after the restart, tapping in after a dangerous cross into the box.

Though that goal suggested there was still more to come, it proved to be the final scoring of the match, with Bassett unable to muster a response after what had been an energy sapping opening half.

Match Report

v POOLE TOWN

Late Penalty Drama Salvages A Point

Sunday 5 February 2023

Royal Wootton Bassett Town 2

Poole Town 2

The final score may have provided little benefit for either team as both sides remain winless in the South West Regional Women's Football League Premier Division. But Royal Wootton Bassett Town and Poole Town can take some form of pride in having produced an entertaining and dramatic 2-2 draw in their latest encounter.

Bassett will be breathing the biggest sigh of relief that they were able to take something out of the game as Simon Harrison's side salvaged a draw courtesy of Sylvannah Winstone's last minute penalty.

The circumstances were somewhat controversial with Winstone having seen her initial effort saved by Emily Wilkinson. However, the referee and assistant determined that the Poole 'keeper had come off her line before the ball was kicked, requiring a retake from which Winstone this time made no mistake.

It was a huge slice of fortune, but Bassett will take whatever good luck they can get with the successful conversion at the second attempt meaning Simon Harrison's side were not cut adrift at the bottom of the table.

Still, Bassett's level five status remains under threat - as does that of Poole. And Warminster Town's win this weekend - coupled with a triumph for Ilminster Town last week - means both teams face an uphill challenge in their remaining fixtures to extricate themselves from the bottom two.

Both teams will give it their best shot though - just as they did here.

Bassett initially went ahead. Wilkinson was unable to hang onto Laura Jefferies' towering corner, and the loose ball dropped to Emma Sykes who scrambled home from close range.

But Poole then struck twice in the second half to go 2-1 in front as Sacha Paynter and Georgia Kemp found the net.

The visitors appeared set to see the game out and claim their maiden league win.

But there was to be late drama and - at the second time of asking from the spot - Winstone (pictured below) equalised to claim a share of the spoils.

Music Lyrics Quiz

The usual Lyrics Quiz is back again today. Fairly easy one this afternoon. Just name the 80's song and artist from the lyric clues below:

Lyric Quiz 11-02-2023
1	When your world is full of strange arrangements And gravity won't pull you through You know you're missing out on something Well that something depends on you
2	I bought a ticket to the world But now I've come back again Why do I find it hard to write the next line?
3	I walked along the avenue I never thought I'd meet a girl like you Meet a girl like you With auburn hair and tawny eyes The kind of eyes that hypnotise me through
4	Moving on the floor now, babe, you're a bird of paradise Cherry ice cream smile, I suppose it's very nice With a step to your left and a flick to the right You catch that mirror way out west You know you're something special, and you look like you're the best
5	We walked in the cold air Freezing breath on a window pane Lying and waiting A man in the dark in a picture frame So mystic and soulful
6	Came in from the city Walked into the door I turned around When I heard the sound Of footsteps on the floor
7	One man on a lonely platform One case sitting by his side Two eyes staring cold and silent Shows fear as he turns to hide
8	You should have stayed at home yesterday Ah-ha, words can't describe The feeling and the way you lied These games you play They're gonna end in more than tears some day
9	I stand still stepping on the shady streets And I watch that man to a stranger You think you only know me when you turn on the light Now the room is lit with danger
10	How does it feel To treat me like you do? When you've laid your hands upon me And told me who you are
